

Developer: Power Platform

Job Description

Job Title:	Developer: Power Platform
Start date:	ASAP
Rate (all inclusive):	£ 475 – 550 per day
Contract / Permanent:	Contract (6-months)
Location:	Cardiff/Remote
Role overview:	RedCortex, a Microsoft Partner are looking for a skilled PowerPlatform SME who can create canvas and model driven apps at a high level. This role will be highly focused on customer facing skills. Being the subject matter expert on the Power Platform you will be expected to give technical guidance whilst gathering requirements to all client bases. You will be expected to be proficient in the Microsoft Power Platform including setup of environments, permissions, and integration with external and internal sources of data and services. They will need the Developer to also be able to develop and create Power Apps and Power Automate physical processes to modernise their workplace. A solid understanding and technical ability with Power BI is essential tool.
Key responsibilities:	• Produce high quality proposals as required: ○ Power Apps (Model-Driven Apps, Canvas Apps), ○ Power Automate, ○ Power BI, ○ Office 365, ○ SharePoint Online, ○ MS Teams. • Deliver leading edge PowerPlatform consultancy and delivery to our customers, • Contribute to bid documentation as required, • Act as SME and point of responsibility for all PowerPlatform Work, • Provide technical and operational support, • Delegates work to PowerPlatform Team.

Skills and qualifications:

- Excellent knowledge and experience of PowerPlatform Online and on-premise (2010 – 2019),
- Strong knowledge and experience of Office 365,
- Experience of the Power Platform (PowerApps, Automate, BI),
- Experience with Teams, One Drive and Azure,
- Good working knowledge of SharePoint,
- Proficiency in the use of scripting and automation tools,
- Strong problem-solving and analytical skills,
- Knowledge of best practices for maintaining information security,
- Ability to handle confidential and sensitive company information responsibly,
- Ability to think creatively to devise customizations and uses for PowerPlatform,
- Clear and effective communication,
- Ability to translate technical jargon into layman's terms for explanatory purposes.